				1 This Canada Day we give thanks for Canada and repent of the wrong Canada has done.	2 Pray for safety for travelers this summer as many people have not travelled in over a year.	3 Thank God for the Tech Team, pray for them as we do both in-person and on-line worship.
4 Pray we not take advantage of people who are vulnerable, but that we would show mercy.	5 Vacation Bible School begins today. Pray children hear the good news of Jesus' love.	6 Indian Residential Schools are a stain on Canada and Canadian churches, for which we are sorry.	7 Pray the VBS staff will have energy, perseverance and wisdom through the week.	8 Thank God for Korean Christians and their fervent and disciplined prayer life.	9 Thank God for VBS, pray those who attended will continue to learn about Jesus.	10 Some overnight camps are opening. Pray for fun and safety in this uncertain time.
11 Pray for an abiding trust in God even when all seems lost and despair is easier than hope.	12 Sports Camp begins today. Pray children will hear the good news of Jesus' love for them.	13 Pray the truth about the Residential Schools is told and heard, so there can be reconciliation.	14 Pray the Sports Camp staff will have energy, perseverance, and wisdom through the week.	15 Thank God for African Christians who remind us that following Jesus is a joyful thing to do.	16 Thank God for Sports Camp, pray those who attended will continue to learn about Jesus.	17 Pray for students anxious for summer jobs, but who cannot find them. Pray they find work.
18 Pray we are not among those who grab and take, but instead would wait for God's blessing.	19 Pray for Chris and Nyssa and family settling into Abbotsford, BC.	20 Pray that former students of the Residential Schools and their families can find healing.	21 Pray for church leaders needing rest after 15 months of COVID's stress.	22 Thank God for Arabic speaking Christians who show us faithfulness in the face of persecution.	23 Pray God would bring into your life at least one Indigenous person you can connect with.	24 Thank God for five people by name in your life who enrich your life and make it better.
25 Thank God for the opportunity to join in worship and hear the word of God preached.	26 Pray for political leaders at all levels that they would be wise in their leadership.	27 Thank God for the gift of summer, thank God for it – be specific about what is good about summer.	28 Pray for church leaders trying to find the energy for a new fall post-COVID and the stress it will bring.	29 Thank God for Latin American Christians reminding us that social justice and evangelism go together.	30 Thank God for the Indigenous people who are followers of Jesus, thank God for their witness.	31 Pray for people ages 18-34 who are particularly anxious about returning to "normal", pray they would know peace.
